

Music, Myth and MAGIC

The JAMHOUSE

St.Pauls Square, Jewellery Quarter, B3 1QU

Wednesday 25 February 2009

7.30 - 11.00 pm

Celebrity stars include:

Steve Ellis and New Amen Corner

Bev Bevan - The Move

Trevor Burton - The Move

The Celturian and Fay Yvonne

Night Parade - winners of Bass Genius

and other celebrity guests

In aid of The Foundation for Conductive Education and Acorns Children's Hospice.

On behalf of the charities, we thank you in anticipation of your support.

STEVE ELLIS from the 60s classic band 'Love Affair' will sing his number one hit 'Everlasting Love' with NEW AMEN CORNER.

BEV BEVAN - original member of The Move and the Electric Light Orchestra will perform some top ten hits with his band.

TREVOR BURTON - Founder member of The Move

MARTIN (The CELTURIAN) and FAY YVONNE

Martin is known as the acoustic warrior whilst Fay is known as the Lady Samurai warrior! They will both perform an acoustic set comprising their own original songs.

NIGHT PARADE Winners of Bass Genius Award - sponsored by Epiphone and Roland

TICKETS ONLY £15 including FOOD!

Please visit www.goodmedia.co.uk to book on line or pay by a cheque - made payable to 'Goodmedia Limited' - and send to: Goodmedia Limited, PO Box 6545, Birmingham B26 2AB

IN AID OF THE FOLLOWING CHARITIES:

THE FOUNDATION FOR CONDUCTIVE EDUCATION teaches children and adults with motor disorders how to overcome their problems of movement and helps them to lead more active and independent lives. Life-changing conductive education gives them the will to achieve amazing results.

ACORNS CHILDREN'S HOSPICE Trust cares for life-limited children and their families from across the West Midlands region. Since 1988 more than 1,100 families have been helped by Acorns but we know there are many more who need the care Acorns offers.